

Accessibility

Accessibility should be an integral part of any arts experience. This toolkit includes tools you can use to ensure you are using best practices to make your arts and cultural programs accessible to all.

Tools

- Americans with Disabilities Act

Information and technical assistance on the Americans with Disabilities Act

- Design for Accessibility: A Cultural Administrator's Handbook

Designed to help organizations not only comply with Section 504 and the Americans with Disabilities Act, but also assist in making access an integral part of planning, mission, programs, outreach, meetings, budget and staffing.

- Accessibility Planning and Resource Guide for Cultural Administrators

An online companion to the printed text Design for Accessibility: A Cultural Administrator's Handbook (2003). The Guide provides guidance to cultural administrators on how to achieve accessible and inclusive programming for everyone including individuals with disabilities and older adults.
