

AGARTS

The word "AGARTS" is rendered in a large, white, bold, sans-serif font against a black background. Each letter is intricately filled with white line-art illustrations of agricultural products: the 'A' contains a corn cob; the 'G' features a pea pod and a pumpkin; the 'A' contains a corn cob; the 'R' shows a pea pod; the 'T' contains a corn cob; the 'S' features a pea pod and a pumpkin. The entire graphic is set within a white horizontal band, which is itself centered between two blue horizontal bands. Vertical yellow bars are positioned on the far left and far right edges of the image.

Farm-to-Artist Residencies New Hope Farm

The Connemara Lads

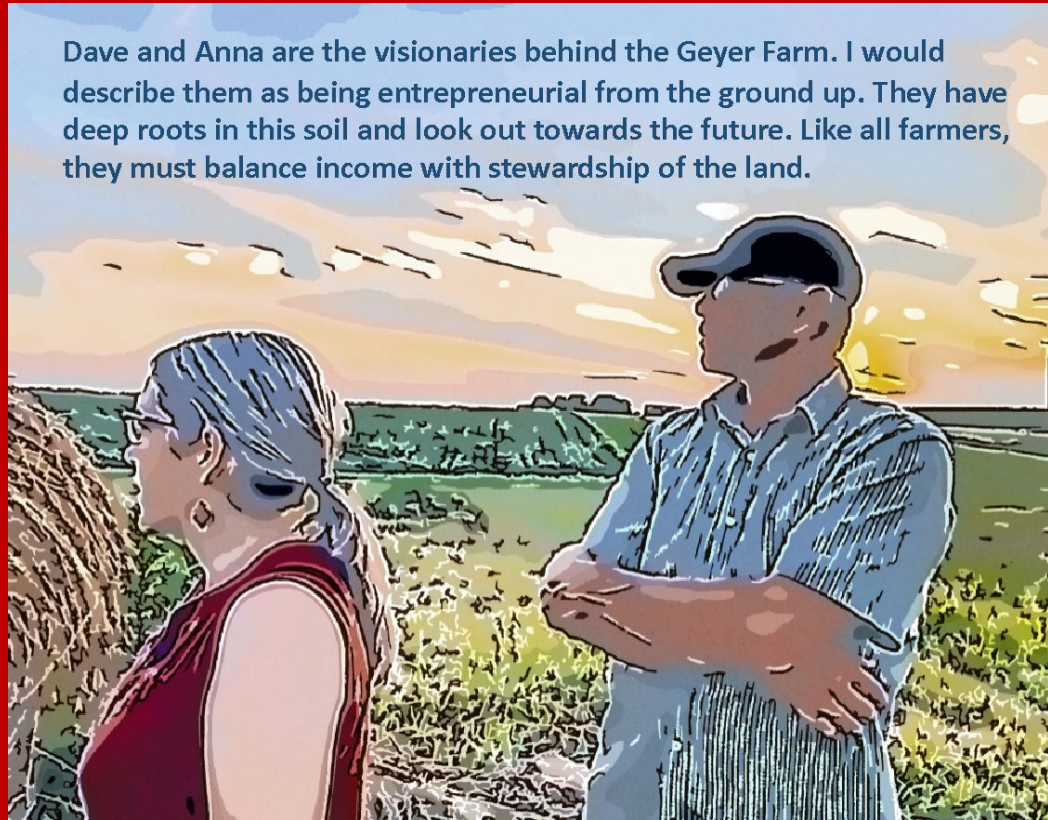

Whiterock Conservancy

Land Alliance Folk School

Dave and Anna Geyer Farm

Dave and Anna are the visionaries behind the Geyer Farm. I would describe them as being entrepreneurial from the ground up. They have deep roots in this soil and look out towards the future. Like all farmers, they must balance income with stewardship of the land.

Jean Graham's Zine

www.agarts.org

Podcast

