96TH CONGRESS
2d SESSION

S. 2200

To impose a trade embargo against the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics until its troops and their support units withdraw from Afghanistan.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES
January 22 (legislative day, January 3), 1980

Mr. WIECKER introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred jointly by unanimous consent to the Committees on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs and Finance

A BILL

To impose a trade embargo against the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics until its troops and their support units withdraw from Afghanistan.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, 3 That (a) notwithstanding any other provision of law, after the date of enactment of this Act, no corporation, institution, group, or individual may import, directly or indirectly, into the United States or its territories or possessions any article grown, produced, or manufactured in the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics until the President determines and certifies to the Congress that the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has withdrawn its combat troops and their support units from Afghanistan.

(b) Section 6 of the Export Administration Act of 1979
is amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

"(l) EXPORTS TO THE UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS.—No goods, technology, or information subject to the jurisdiction of the United States or exported by any person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, may be exported to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics until the President determines and certifies to the Congress that the Government of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has withdrawn its combat troops and their support units from Afghanistan.".
